About Us

Crofters restaurant is located in Anlaby, East Yorkshire, five miles from the centre of Hull and close to the Humber Bridge.

Housed in a pair of converted Victorian cottages it makes the ideal venue for Christmas celebrations whether it be a family meal; gathering of friends or the office party in one of our private dining rooms.

We are a small family run restaurant which provides itself on good quality home cooking and a warm welcome.

Booking Information

Early booking is advised as we get extremely busy at this time of year with many guests returning year after year.

All bookings must be confirmed with a £10 per head deposit. This deposit will not be returned unless 48 notice of cancellation or reduction in table size is given.

We also request that parties of 8 or more pre-order their choice of starter and main course.
